

At and To Preposition Exercise

Fill the gaps with either at or to.

- 1 It took them 3 hours to come a decision.
- 2 It took them 3 hours to arrive a decision.
- 3 He got angry and started shouting everyone.
- 4 I saw children throwing stones an old man.
- 5 A lot of people turned up at the concert, much my surprise.
- 6 By the time I arrived the pub, she'd already left.
- 7 I was amazed see Nuria after so many years.
- 8 I was amazed seeing Nuria after so many years.
- 9 Elizabeth invited me her wedding.
- 10 He aimed the gun the president's neck.
- 11 Alex asked me for a rubber so I threw it him across the classroom.
- 12 We got the cinema just in time.

Answers

- 1 It took them 3 hours to come to a decision.
- 2 It took them 3 hours to arrive at a decision.
- 3 He got angry and started shouting at everyone.
- 4 I saw children throwing stones at an old man.
- 5 A lot of people turned up at the concert, much to my surprise.
- 6 By the time I arrived at the pub, she'd already left.
- 7 I was amazed to see Nuria after so many years.
- 8 I was amazed at seeing Nuria after so many years.
- 9 Elizabeth invited me to her wedding.
- 10 He aimed the gun at the president's neck.
- 11 Alex asked me for a rubber so I threw it to him across the classroom.
- 12 We got to the cinema just in time.

