

Decision Idioms Exercise

A Translate the idioms.

Idiom	Meaning	Translation
1- To be worth it a – decide ⇨
2- To be up to b – definitely not ⇨
3- To make up your mind c – your choice ⇨
4- "No way, José!" d – good decision ⇨

B Circle the correct answer.

1 A: Look! If you buy eight CDs you get one free.

B:

A Bah! It's not worth it.

B You bet!

C It's up to you.

2 A: OK, we can go for a walk or rent a video.

B: I don't mind.

A You bet!

B It's up to you.

C No way, José!

3 A: Do you fancy going out for dinner?

B:

A It's worth it.

B Make up your mind!

C You bet!

4 Hmm. Should I buy a new printer or a scanner?

.....

A I bet!

B I can't make up my mind.

C It's not worth it.

5 A: Can you lend me your car, Dad?

B:

A It's not worth it.

B Make up your mind!

C No way, José!

6 A: Are you going to The Strokes concert?

B:

A You bet!

B Make up your mind!

C It's not worth it.

7 A: Look. 6 nights in Mallorca for 230 Euros

B:

A You bet!

B Gosh. That's really worth it, isn't it?

C Make up your mind!

8 Really, I don't mind.

A It's not worth it.

B You bet!

C It's up to you.

Answers

A 1D 2C 3A 4B

B 1A 2B 3C 4B 5C 6A 7B 8C

